

If you wish to challenge (appeal) a parking fine

- Fill in this form and state what you believe is incorrect
- The challenge must have been received by the Swedish Police Authority within six months of the date on which the parking fine was paid or the Swedish Enforcement Authority began action to collect the parking fine.

Who is entitled to challenge?

- The person who is the registered owner of the vehicle in the Swedish Road Traffic Register or an equivalent foreign register.
- If the owner is a legal person, the person who is the authorised signatory of the company is entitled to challenge.
- If another person is to challenge the parking fine, they require permission from the owner of the vehicle or the authorised signatory. Contact the vehicle owner to check whether you are entitled to challenge the parking fine on behalf of the owner.

1. Information given on the parking fine

Municipality	OCR number
Vehicle registration number	Date	Time
Location

2. Vehicle owner

<input type="checkbox"/> Private individual		<input type="checkbox"/> Legal person (company or similar)
Name		Authorised signatory (for legal persons)
Personal/corporate identity number

3. The person challenging (appealing) the parking fine

Personal identity number	Last name		First name
Address		Postcode	Town/city
Tel.	Tel. (mobile)	Email address

If you are not the owner of the vehicle that has been issued with a parking fine you must confirm your right to represent the owner in challenging the parking fine:

- ☐ I certify that the owner of the vehicle issued with the parking fine has given me permission to challenge it. I am aware that untrue certification may have legal consequences for me.

The Swedish Police Authority processes personal data in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Reference number

Please give a detailed explanation of why you believe the parking fine is incorrect. State what evidence you can refer to and what you wish to demonstrate with each piece of evidence. Please attach all pieces of evidence.

4. Justify your challengePlease send your challenge to:

Polismyndigheten
Region Nord/Bergslagen/Mitt/Stockholm/Öst/Väst/Syd
(State only the region where the parking fine was issued)
Box 711
981 27 Kiruna